

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS
4/14/08

Attention juniors and seniors! Prom tickets are on sale this week for $65. Friday will be the LAST day to buy your ticket. Also, Kristi's flowers of Redford will be here this Thursday, April 17th, to take pre-orders for corsages and boutonnieres; you must pay in full at the time of ordering. They will also be here next Monday and Tuesday.

Well Freshmen, the time has finally come. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to have a great time and possibly throw an object at a teacher and your fellow classmates without seeing Mr. Simms or Mr. Finn. This Friday, yes THIS FRIDAY immediately after school Link Crew is sponsoring a Dodgeball tournament. Those of you who want to participate please sign up outside of Mr. Smith's room, which is room 709. There will be a sign up list at his door today. Link Crew and A-Team, if you are planning to attend, and yes you all should be, please sign up as well. By the way, did we mention that you may have the opportunity to throw a ball at the likes of Mr. Smith, Mrs. Roberts, Dr. Chen, Ms. Nasif, Mrs. Frankling, and Mr. Bingamon. There are more teacher, those are just a few to name. Sign up today!!

The girls varsity soccer team beat Divine Child by a score of 6 to 0 Friday evening despite 40mph winds. Junior Elaine Nelson led the scoring efforts for the Eagles with a hat-trick. Senior Ashlie Ingold added two goals and junior Ashley Bagazinski added a goal. Junior Renee Wright had two assists and senior Ashlie Ingold had an assist. Senior Megan Schulz made seven wonderful saves to secure the second straight shut out for the Eagles. Exceptional play was turned in from all players. The girls are now 2-0 and unscored upon for the season. The girls have their home opener tonight against Berkley at 4pm, come support the team.

Mrs. Donakowski's 4th and 5th hour gym classes need to bring paper, pencil with them. Lock everything else up in your locker. Do NOT change.

Students, if you are interested in Brown University, MIT, or Yale, please attend an informational session on April 29th in Ann Arbor or April 30th in Dearborn. Reply by April 24th at www.brownmityale.org/breakfast.

Minority students who plan to enter a teacher education program should visit www.maspa.org for a renewable scholarship opportunity. Information and applications can be found under the "awards" section. Applications must be received by May 1.

Scheduling for next year's classes is right around the corner! This year, you can find the Course Offering Book online on the District's website. Take some time during the next few weeks to look at the classes available and start discussing your options with your family and your teachers. Counselors will begin meeting with students next week and will continue scheduling through the end of the month. Go to <http://southredford.net> and see what is new at Thurston next year!

Attention Juniors and Seniors, Prom tickets are now on sale! The cost of a ticket this week is $65. The last day to buy a Prom ticket is this Friday, April 18th.

Team Thurston has begun recruiting members for the 2008 Redford Relay for Life. The event will begin at 10am on Saturday, June 7th and will conclude at 10am on Sunday June 8th. We hope to raise AT LEAST $1000, please help us reach this goal! It costs $20 dollars to join the team, which goes towards a t-shirt, snacks, and most importantly, the cause. Your $20 and t-shirt size must be turned in by Friday, May 2 in order to guarantee that a correct size will be available for you. Extras will be ordered but will be on a first come, first served basis. We will also be hosting bake sales most Fridays of April and May. If you are unable to make a commitment to the team please help out by purchasing baked goods. If you are interested in donating baked goods or fruit, your team fee may be waived. If you are interested in joining the team or donating baked goods please see Mrs. Frankling (in 800 hall), Kellie Aho, Kelli Mapes, or Chelsea Rigley ASAP.

Seniors Seniors Seniors

If you have received a monetary award or scholarship, whether you accept it or not, we would like to know about it. Please make sure that Mrs. Grayson in the Counseling Office receives a copy of your award letter by April 30th so that we may plan for recognition of this award at our Senior Honor's Night Program on May 29th.
